I am retired and cant have a restaurant to feed me so I enjoy going to the canteen and getting good and eat and bring home some to eat for the next week, and I pray for more in the future. I am 55 and love the general canteen. I have had a confirmed weak heart for a long time, but the food and staff make all the difference. I feel so much better now that I know that food can and does taste better than a fancy restaurant, and it doesn't cost a fortune. I am 55 and love the general canteen. It used to be 25 minutes with a bus, but the way it's going now, that will be a little longer. That's a good way to see more of the town, too. So happy you can walk there from your home. It used to be 25 minutes with a bus, but the way it's going now, that will be a little longer. That's a good way to see more of the town, too. I just love it! Small town friend I can walk to the cafeteria from my house. I'm driving all the time now. I live in Covington and work in Coeur d'Alene. I have been "canteening" my way for years in between long trips back and forth. I live in pd. and the canteen allows me to eat and live in pd. I enjoy it very much. I also love the fact that I can drop off meals for a friend and she can come here in a car and pick them up so I
